

VERNON TOWN COUNCIL
SPECIAL MEETING
Rockville High School
70 Loveland Hill Road
Vernon, CT

TUESDAY, April 28, 2009
7:00 P.M.

RECEIVED
VERNON TOWN CLERK
09 MAY 19 AM 8:59

A) PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE:

The meeting came to order at (7:07 PM)

There were approximately 105 citizens present at the Annual Town Meeting in addition to the Mayor and members of the Town Council.

Town Clerk Bernice K. Dixon read into the record the legal notice of the annual Town Meeting and certified that the notice was posted on the bulletin board of the Town Hall on April 13, 2009, and published in the Rockville Reminder on April 13, 2009.

Mayor McCoy called for nominations for a moderator. Council Member Anderson, seconded by Council Member Herbst made a motion to nominate James Luddecke as the moderator. Council Member Thomas, seconded by Council member Winkler made a motion to nominate Attorney Cummings as the moderator. Mr. Luddecke deferred his nomination to Attorney Cummings.

Nominations for moderator was closed. Motion to nominate Attorney Cummings as the moderator passed unanimously.

As Moderator, Attorney Cummings explained the requirements necessary to speak at the Annual Town Meeting as to residence, age and ownership of property. He reported that pursuant to chapter 7-7 of the CT General Statutes, a petition was delivered to the town clerk within 24 hours of this meeting, which requires the budget to be sent to Referendum rather than voting at the Annual Town Meeting. He informed the citizens that tonight's meeting would serve as a public forum for residents to make comments and ask questions regarding the proposed 2009 – 2010 budget. The Referendum vote will take place at Center 375, 375 Hartford Turnpike on Saturday, May 9, 2009 between the hours of 6:00 AM to 8:00 PM.

Mayor McCoy thanked everyone for their attendance. He provided the citizens with budget highlights. He explained there will be a box at the referendum for citizens to provide comments.

The Moderator then asked if there was anyone present who wished to comment on the proposed budget.

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Mary Oliver, 15 Dobson Common Circle. Spoke regarding the increase in budget revenue, personnel, and the lobbyist. She also spoke against the budget vote being held on the Saturday before Mother's Day.

Peter Kosak, 34 Farmbrook Lane: Spoke in favor of the budget along with asking Town Council Members to consider picking up the costs for lights and fire hydrants in his neighborhood.

Bill Dauphin, 11 Olive Lane: spoke regarding the benefits the Town has to offer and everyone in the community who pays taxes has the right to these benefits. He also spoke about considering projects such as schools and roads each year when voting on the budget.

Gale Scott, 65 Vista View: Spoke regarding the fact that not everyone is able to receive the benefits mentioned earlier.

Herbert Slicer, 561 Hartford Tpke.: Asked Town Council Members to provide better communication regarding the budget. He also asked members to consider cuts when dealing with unions.

Edie Chernack, 50 Cubles Dr.: Quoted information from a Town of Ellington meeting minutes where the Town Manager spoke. She is also opposed to the Saturday election and Lobbyist funds. She also spoke about her road, which need work.

Pierre Lisee, 210 Skinner Rd.: Requested Town Council Members keep politics out of the Town Council Meetings.

Ken Poliquin, 73 Vernon Center Heights: Spoke regarding his opposition to the budget.

Bill Smith, 30 Vernwood Dr.: Spoke regarding his opposition to union labor concessions in the budget.

Michael Winkler, 20 Gottier Dr.: Congratulated Mayor McCoy on the final version of the budget although he feared it would not balance. He explained the property value increase is based on the phase-in process. He has concerns that the Board of Education has not informed Town Council Members where the $300,000 cuts are going to be made. He is in favor of the budget.

Tom Didio, 112 Box Mountain Drive: Spoke in favor of Education being a #1 priority. He is opposed to the lobbyist. He also is opposed to the vote for referendum taking place on a Saturday. He asked Mr. Luddecke about the effect of the budget on taxes. Mr. Luddecke provided an explanation and requested homeowners that have questions speak to the Town Assessors office or visit the Town website.

Mayor McCoy spoke about lobbying efforts that he has had to perform since taking office.

Mr. Didio: spoke against the comments regarding opposition to unions.

Christy Vale, 100 Dobson Road: Provided information about the Board of Education budget. She provided information about personnel including the position for Assistant Town Administrator. She also provided information regarding the cost of holding referendums. She also spoke about the cost of education for each student attending school.

Gordon Gibson, 836 Hartford Tpke: Requested the moderator when taking votes, hold a vote regarding how many people would prefer the Saturday referendum vote.

James Hoover, 155 Trout Stream Dr., Chair of the Flood and Erosion Board: Spoke about his appreciation of the Mayor and his commitment to the Town. He asked the Board of Education members to take notice of a high voltage transformer behind the high school with a gully behind with flood waters flowing through it. He also spoke about the final phase of the re-evaluation payments and requested another re-evaluation as soon as legally possible. He also spoke about the Saturday vote, along with unfunded mandates. He is in favor of the lobbyist.

Carl Slicer, President of the Vernon Taxpayers Association: Spoke in favor of the lobbyist. He also spoke about the number of foreclosures in the Town of Vernon. He congratulated Town Council Members on their efforts in creating the budget.

James Luddecke, 54 Crestridge Drive: Spoke of his 28 years in attending town meetings and provided a historical view of budget process where town meetings were discontinued and brought back again by former Mayor Marcham.

Myron Krueger, 55 Edith Road: Spoke regarding the lack of budget information provided to Vernon residents. He verified the budget was available on-line and asked Council Members to have better communication regarding the viewing of the budget. He also spoke about the classroom sizes within the Board of Education.

Mayor McCoy provided information about unfunded mandates, which take place in many the Town of Vernon Departments besides Dept of Education.

Joe Grabinski, 623 Dart Hill Rd.: Spoke about personnel, and union issues.

Mary Oliver, 15 Dobson Commons Circle: Stated that the Town does have an assessment of unfunded mandates and that the Town should be able to communicate their needs to the Representatives and Senators.

Bill Dauphin: Spoke about the compensation of town and school employees.
