NIGHTSHIFT CLOSSES OUT THE 2019 MAYOR DANIEL CHAMPAGNE AND VERNON PARKS AND RECREATION SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

VERNON - The rocking sounds of Nightshift will put an exclamation point on this year's Vernon Summer Concert Series presented by Mayor Daniel Champagne and the Parks and Recreation Department as it concludes on Thursday, August 22nd. The concert will be held at the picnic grove area located by McCoy Field in Henry Park at 120 South Street from 6:30 – 8:30 pm. Nightshift has five talented band members with great musical backgrounds. Wint Fenderson is lead vocalist, Kenny Hicks is on keyboards and vocals, Brian Camilleri plays electric bass guitar and supplies vocals, Fred Bretthauer plays lead guitar and adds vocals and Mark Carter is on drums. The group plays popular, fun and danceable songs that appeal to all ages. Lynyard Skynyrd, Journey, The Eagles, Bruce Springsteen, and The Doors are among the artists whose songs they perform. They will keep your feet moving for the entire show.

Attendees should bring lawn chairs and blankets to comfortably enjoy the performance. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held at 26 Park Place, 2nd floor. Check for weather updates on www.vernonrec.org or call 860.870.3520.
