VERNON – Strike up the band! The Vernon Summer Concert Series presented by Mayor Daniel A. Champagne and the Parks and Recreation Department leads off on Thursday, August 1st with a stirring performance of patriotism and pop by the 102nd Army Band - CT Army Reserve National Guard featuring the 2019 Three Second Rush Concert Band. The concert will be held at the picnic grove area located by McCoy Field in Henry Park at 120 South Street from 6:30 – 8:30 pm. A variety of music from well-known artists and composers will be played with the zest of a dynamic music ensemble mixing in an occasional touch of Dixie brass. From the lively marches of John Philip Sousa and Henry Fillmore to the jazzy notes of Gordon Goodwin and the pop songs of Adele among others, the 102nd Army Band is sure to captivate the audience with their skillful renditions.

Upcoming concerts in the four-part series will be held August 8th (Cover 2 Cover), August 15th (Coyote River Band) and August 22nd (Night Shift).
